THE RIGHTS OF WAR.

EFFECT OF HOSTILITIES UPON CERTAIN MATTERS.

Must be Regarded by Beliegerant Parties.

EFFECT UPON PERSONS CONCERNED.

(Chicago Inter Ocean.)

The effect of a state of war upon persons, nations, property, contracts, property and trade, is a matter of the greatest importance at this time.

The leading authorities upon the subject are the following: Thomas D. Merton and Francis Wharton, and from the works of these masters of international law the following information is obtained, which it will be well for all to consider.

During a state of war neither belligerent has the right to use in the course of the war to enforce a contract or obligation of debt. The citizens of the parties of war are liable to be taken into custody, captured and held in the cargo.

Contracts made with an enemy during a state of war cannot be enforced in the courts of either nation after war is concluded.

Interest does not run on an account during a state of war.

In case of a war, one party wishes to try it. Do not accept any substitute.

ion of private property for public use in case of war is that, when it is thus taken, the owner is to be compensated according to the value of the property or the expectation that the property would fall into the hands of the enemy justifies such seizure. Under these conditions every nation has the right to appropriate all property within its boundaries.

The domicile of the owner usually determines the nationality of a ship, but if the ship is built under the flag and registered in another country, the nationality of the ship, her papers (i.e., crew, etc.), articles and register must be accepted as conclusive evidence of her nationality.

A LITTLE HISTORY OF THIS INTERESTING YOUNGSTER.

A Haughty Kid Who has no Respect for Anybody or Anything Except His Mother.

FOOTMAN'S FATE FOR A KIND DEED.

In the royal youth of the Escurial, where are interred the remains of every monarch of Spain from Emperor Charles V. down to the last King Alfonso XII., there remains a spot known as the "boy king," who all of us have heard of, but few know.

It is a boy, just now about six years old, who is the son of Don Jaime, the only son of Don Carlos, the man who was the last member of the Spanish branch of the house of Bourbon.

Queen Christina was forced to dismiss the footman, for having transgressed the laws of etiquette by laying his plumed hands on the sacred person of His Most Catholic Majesty.

WEDNESDAY, MAY 4.

It was not dew, but Dewey, on our fleet at the Philippines.

The cow has jumped over the moon at Havana. The price of beef has gone up out of sight.

The Republican, the Republican paper that was published at Leitchfield, has turned its toes to the daises and is numbered among the things that were.

The Beaver Dam Gleaner dedicates two columns of blank space to our soldier boys. Nothing the Gleaner could have done would have been a greater more.

It is hoped that Ohio county will furnish a good sized delegation to the Commercial Convention at Louisville next week. We need the good that their visit would bring us.

The war department has announced that it will not allow the women to take part in the war in any capacity. Many noble-hearted ladies have tendered their services as nurses, &c., but their kind acts will have to be dispensed with.

The negroes should give a fair chance to confine with Spain. It is the first opportunity they have had since the emancipation of their race to manifest their patriotism and show their loyalty to their country. Give 'em a chance.

Young ladies of Kentucky have been very generous and patriotic in furnishing the soldiers with flags and banners. Sure the boys will wish for no greater inspiration than the encouragement, love and devotion of Kentucky girls.

Spain says she relies mostly on sunken torpedoes in the harbors of Cuba to prevent the United States fleet from entering. And yet she clings to the tale of injured innocence and says she is not responsible for the blow-up of the Maine.

The present war with Spain is costing the country over a million dollars a day. Some attention should be paid to economy in the matter. The sooner it is over, the sooner the expense will stop. Every possible effort should be used to concentrate forces and bring the conflict to a speedy and decisive end.

HOW WILL JENNINGS BRYAN has written a letter to President McKinley and offered his services to the Government in the present war crisis in any capacity in which he may be called upon. The letter is brief, but courteous. It is thought that Mr. Bryan is entirely sincere. It seems Mr. McKinley like a Spanish shot, and he is at a loss to know just what to do in the premises.

It is believed that the United States are infested with Spanish spies. Every precaution is being taken to thwart or capture them. It is further believed that an attempt will be made at a similar location to that of our own president. The Commander-in-Chief of our army and navy. A sharp lookout is constantly kept and the spring from which the President gets his drinking water is closely guarded. Look out for Spanish treachery!

The existence of the saloon is a constant menace to the moral improvement and industrial progress of a town. It offers no inducement to capital for investment nor an inviting prospect for an increase in population. The products and influence of saloon contribute nothing whatever to the power for good; its tendency is altogether towards evil. Harford people should consider this matter carefully and be prepared to cast a conscientious vote on June 18th.

The victory at the Philippines Sunday morning, the first great naval battle, was glorious and decisive. It was just such a contest as was expected and the result was nearly all that was hoped for by Americans. It was important that the Spanish fleet should be captured or destroyed so as to prevent its preying on American commerce in the Pacific. It was a battle royal, a fierce and awful fight. Our ships were outnumbered and in strange waters, and labored under other disadvantages. Their victory was all the more glorious.

The Beaver Dam Gleaner makes an imbecile attempt to answer THE HERALD's article of last week, but fails in every particular except taking up space. It does not deny the charges made by THE HERALD nor reflect any discredit on the court martial which condemned the contempt horse towards it by the people for its senseless attack on Hartford under the pretense of attacking the liquor evil. It does not say that liquor is sold right under its nose at Beaver Dam and at Rockport nor controvert the charge that by its cowardice it is shielding the blind throat of these places by its efforts to sell all blame on Hartford. It falls back on old tried to take away our court house if the good people here had not abolished saloons, and indulged in its usual incendiary ravings, calculated to inspire some fire chief to help it out. The Gleaner should cease its anarchist utterances. The Beaver Dam people would conserve their best interests by suppressing it or sending its cranky editor off. They cannot afford to bear the trouble which this wild-eyed sheet may bring upon them.

The progress of the war so far gives every evidence that Spain will sustain her reputation for unbridled and treacherous fighting. Her favorite weapons are the submarine mine, the hidden torpedo and other treacherous and wicked methods. Her ironclads are almost invincible. They will open up broad roads. They will not fight in the open either in large or small numbers unless the occasion compels it. Spain's whole mode of warfare will be upon this plan. Our whole fighting force should be on the lookout for the unexpected.

We understand that there is some fear entertained by some living in the districts and not thoroughly acquainted with the war situation, let the United States Government have made a mistake in going to war with Spain, and that we are not altogether in the right. We hasten to assure these people that their fears are groundless and that our country never engaged in a more righteous war than the present one. We would further revise these faint hearts by assuring them that every indication is that we are certain to conquer our foes in this fight.

The Klondike excitement has been completely swallowed up in the war master. A great many bigewepapers throughout the country went to considerable expense to equip and dispatch special correspondents to the far-away gold fields, but have felt it necessary to print but few letters from the Klondike. Their experience has been like that of many people who flocked to the new Eldorado. It was a clear case of risk, with no certainty of results, and if they failed to realize their potentialities it was the prime cause of their undoing. Kentucky is getting back to its moorings, and things look brighter now.

BOND ISSUE. — It is thought that one of the greatest menaces to the success of the attack of United States forces against Spain is the publication of war plans by our daily newspapers. In the days of hand competition each newspaper had to compete in getting information of all kinds. It would be natural for a newspaper to make a claim of all information, and it is feared that from this ambition may result disaster to our country. The sentiment is all one way, everybody should be interested in concealing our important war moves, and these precious papers should be called down by the Government.

The Beaver Dam Gleaner still continues its abuse of Harford and its silly threats to deprive us of our court house. Some time ago a bold attempt was made to burn the court house here and it was mildly hinted that the one who attempted it lived in Beaver Dam or was hired to attempt the tempest the difficult act by some one living in that place. If the good people of Beaver Dam do not want this suspicion to grow, they should at once admit the seditious and sanguinary nature of their conduct and apologize for their conduct.

There is a movement in Congress already to make the denunciation of the bonds as low as possible. The limit under the War Revenue Bill is fifty dollars.

PORTUGAL IS NEUTRAL. — LONDON, April 30.—The Official Gazette to-day quotes the Foreign Office as saying that Portugal is in the war between Spain and the United States. It is similar to the decree issued at the outbreak of the Franco-Prussian war and contains six articles.

First—Forbids the equipment of privateers to Portuguese waters. Second—Forbids the entry of privateers into Portuguese waters. Third—Denies legitimacy trade as regards belligerents, and forbids trading in goods which may be used for military purposes. Fourth—Wars Portugal and foreigners in Portugal against actions contrary to the security of the State.

Fifth—Refuses protection to any friends of the decree.
